Volunteer of the Year

The Victorian Museums and Galleries Awards recognise and celebrate excellence across the sector. They seek to reward presenting and collecting organisations and the individuals who support and strengthen Victoria's creative and cultural industries through outstanding work and a commitment to best practice.

INTRODUCTION

The Volunteer of the Year Award recognises the invaluable contributions of volunteers to the museum and gallery sector. This award celebrates the hard work and dedication of volunteers who have made a significant impact on their institution and the community they serve. Volunteers play a crucial role in the sector, providing support in a variety of areas such as education, programming, and visitor services. This award celebrates the efforts of individuals who go above and beyond in their role as a volunteer to make a positive impact on the sector and the diverse communities it serves.

ELIGIBILITY

All paid staff working in Victorian presenting and collecting organisations are eligible to be nominated in the 2024 Change-maker of the Year Award. This includes all public museums and galleries, archives, zoos, botanical gardens, historical societies, libraries, Keeping Places, science centres, and any other organisations that acquire, conserve and exhibit arts and cultural material. Nominations must address all assessment criteria, and the nominees must be currently volunteering or have completed their volunteer role within the past 12 months.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

The following are the criteria against which a nominated individual will be assessed and scored:

- 1. INNOVATION: The volunteer demonstrates an innovative approach to their volunteering activities. This could include developing new programs or finding creative solutions to challenges faced by the museum or gallery.
- 2. IMPACT: The volunteer has made a significant impact on the sector. This could include increasing visitor numbers, improving the quality of visitor experiences, or facilitating collaborative engagement or initiatives.
- 3. LEADERSHIP: The volunteer demonstrates leadership skills, such as inspiring and motivating others to get involved in volunteering activities, or taking on a leadership role within the volunteer team.

Be advised that nominations will also be assessed on application quality. Judges will consider accuracy and clarity of writing, relevance of support materials, as well as effectively demonstrated outcomes.
